 - 5) The contractor may, before the deadline for submitting offers, change or withdraw its offer.
 - 6) Each contractor may submit only one offer and propose only one price.
5. Criteria for the evaluation of offers
- When selecting a tender (applies to each part of the contract), the contracting authority will use the following tender evaluation criteria:
1. Gross price of the subject of the contract - 90 points
 2. Years of experience in the production of diamond products - 10 points

Only non-rejected offers are subject to evaluation.

The contracting authority will add up the points awarded in the criterion gross price of the subject of the contract and the number of years of experience in the production of nanodiamond products. The offer may receive a maximum of 100 points.

$$P = P_c + P_d$$

where:

P - total number of points for the offer under consideration

P_c - number of points obtained in the criterion "Gross price of the subject of the contract"

P_d - the number of points obtained in the criterion "number of years of experience in the production of diamond products"

The method and rules for evaluating offers according to individual criteria.

5.1 Criterion: "Gross price of the subject of the contract" - 90 points.

The total gross price of the offer.

The tender with the lowest price will be awarded the maximum number of points - 90 points.

The remaining tenders will be awarded points calculated according to the formula:

$$P_c = \frac{C_n}{C_b} \times 90$$

where:

P_c - number of points awarded to the examined offer according to the "price" criterion;

C_n - the lowest gross price among valid, not rejected offers;

C_b - gross price of the evaluated offer ;

90 - weight of the criterion.

The calculations will be made by the contracting authority with an accuracy of two decimal places.

5.2 Criterion "Number of years of experience in the manufacture of diamond products" - 10 points.

a) the number of years of experience required by the ordering party in the production of diamond powders, at least 3 years.

b) the number of years of experience in the production of diamond products resulting from the offer submitted by the contractor will be assessed.

c) the evaluation of the offer in terms of this criterion will be carried out according to the following rules:

- an offer with the number of years of experience in the production of diamond products required by the contracting authority equal to 3 years 0 points.

- an offer with the number of years of experience in the production of diamond products as required by the contracting authority over 3 years 10 points.

The contractor submits a declaration of compliance with the above requirements on the offer form. The contracting authority reserves the right to request from contractors documents confirming compliance with the requirements for participation in the procedure in question.

6. The contracting authority reserves the right to cancel the procedure at any time without giving reasons.
7. The contracting authority will sign a contract with the selected contractor, constituting Appendix 3.
